Playoffs/Séries éliminatoires

Four teams with best winning percentage qualify for postseason. Top seed plays fourth seed and second seed plays third seed in best-of-five series. Winners meet in best-of-five championship series.

Roster Rules/Règles pour l'alignement

The roster limit for a Can-Am League club is 22 players, with a minimum of 19 active players. An additional two players may be on the disabled list during the regular season. Of those 22 players, a minimum of five must be rookies and a maximum of four may be veterans. The remaining players will be designated limited service (LS) players, and of those LS players, only six may be LS-4. Two of the LS-4 players may be an LS-5.

During the pre-season, a maximum of 28 players may be under contract at any one time without regard to classification. The 22 active player roster must be met two days before the start of the regular season.

Definitions

Year of Service: A year of service for Can-Am League players is 75 official at bats or more in a National Association or independent league or leagues, or 30 innings or more pitched in a National Association or independent league or leagues, in any season prior to the present calendar year. For independent and short season/rookie league service, the first two years of service equals one National Association year. For foreign leagues, the classification and salary level will be determined by the league office.

Rookie: A player with less than one year of service.

LS-1: A player with less than two years of service.

LS-2: A player with less than three years of service.

LS-3: A player with less than four years of service.

LS-4: A player with less than five years of service. 1 of the 6 LS-4s may be an LS-5.

LS-5: A player with less than 6 years of service.

Veteran: A player with six or more years of service. If a player has six or more years of service but has not reached the age of 26 by September 1 of that season, he will be considered an LS-4. If he has not reached the age of 24 by September 1 of that season, he will be considered an LS-3.

Official Baseball: Rawlings.

Statistician: PointStreak, 50 Minthorn Blvd., Suite 400, Thornhill, ON L3T 7X8.

Field Manager/Gérant Matt Padgett

After playing for the Jackals during their 2013 run to the Can-Am League Championship Series and serving as a bench coach for the team in 2016, Matt Padgett enters his first season as a professional manager.

In 2017, Padgett will take the reins of a Jackals club that has reached the playoffs for eight consecutive years and reached the league Championship Series in five of the last six seasons.

Padgett's 18-year professional career began in 1998 when the Florida Marlins drafted him in the fifth round of the MLB Amateur Draft. A true power hitter, when he reached Triple-A Albuquerque for the first time in 2004, Padgett belted 24 home runs and drove in 93 runs in his first season. After a few more years in affiliated baseball with the Cubs and Phillies organizations, Padgett embarked on a long career in independent baseball.

Over eight seasons, Padgett consistently delivered for 10 different teams in the Atlantic League, American Association and Can-Am League. In his independent career, Padgett batted .283, hit 83 home runs and compiled an .810 OPS.

Field Manager/Gérant Hal Lanier

Former National League Manager of the Year Hal Lanier returns for his third season in the Can-Am League as the manager of the Ottawa Champions after leading the club to the league championship in 2016.

Previously, Lanier was the skipper of the Frontier League's Normal Cornbelters in 2010 and 2011. He had also managed the Can-Am's Sussex Skyhawks from 2008 to 2009, leading the club to the league championship in 2008. In addition, Lanier spent ten seasons at the helm of the Northern League's Winnipeg Goldeyes.

From 1986 to 1988, he managed the Houston Astros, guiding the team to a 96-66 record and the division championship in 1986, earning NL Manager of the Year honors. Prior to Houston, Lanier served as the third-base coach for the St. Louis Cardinals for five seasons, including for their 1982 World Series and 1985 NLCS squads. He managed in the Cardinals' minor-league system from 1976 to 1980.

As a player, Lanier spent ten seasons in the big leagues, eight with San Francisco and two with the New York Yankees. As a rookie for the Giants in 1964, he batted .274 and was named to the Topps All-Star Rookie team.

Field Manager/Gérant Patrick Scalabrini

Patrick Scalabrini returns for his eighth campaign at the helm of the CapitaLes. Since becoming the club's manager, the native of Sherbrooke, Québec, has put together six winning seasons and a 399-273 regular-season record, a .594 winning percentage.

In eight seasons as a professional player, Scalabrini was a career .293 hitter with 74 home runs, 397 RBIs and 750 hits. Scalabrini played for the CapitaLes from 2007 to 2009, serving as a player-coach during the final two seasons. He spent a season with the Baltimore Orioles' organization in 2005, splitting time between Low-A Delmarva and High-A

Frederick. In his first professional season, Scalabrini earned Northern League East Rookie of the Year honors in 2002 with Québec, hitting .325 with seven homers and 45 RBI. He played collegiately at Hawaii and at Seminole State.

Field Manager/Gérant Jamie Keefe

Three-time Can-Am League Manager of the Year Jamie Keefe enters his fifth season as the Boulders' manager after leading the club to the league finals in 2016.

A native of Rochester, N.H., Keefe has been named the league's top manager in each of the last two seasons, as well as with Pittsfield in 2011. Keefe also spent nine seasons managing three different clubs in the independent Frontier League. He has amassed over 500 professional wins as a manager.

Originally a third-round draft pick of Pittsburgh in 1992, Keefe spent nine seasons playing professionally.

Field Manager/Gérant Bobby Jones

Orange, N.J., native and former big-league pitcher Bobby Jones returns for his second season with the Miners in 2017.

Jones spent the 2013 through 2015 seasons as the pitching coach of the Rockland Boulders, helping to lead the team to the 2014 league championship and the Can-Am's best regular-season record in 2015.

The lefthander spent parts of six seasons in the bigs with Boston, San Diego, Colorado and the New York Mets, appearing in 99 career major-league games. In addition, Jones was the starting pitcher in Game 4 of the 2000 National League Championship Series for the Mets against St. Louis.

Jones, who played a total of 15 professional seasons, was originally a 44th-round draft pick of Milwaukee in the 1992 draft.

Jackals du New-Jersey - Matt Padgett

Après avoir évolué avec les Jackals en 2013 jusqu'à leur présence en série de championnat et servi comme entraîneur sur le banc en 2016, Matt Padgett entreprend sa première saison comme gérant d'une équipe de baseball professionnel.

En 2017, Padgett dirigera une formation qui a participé aux séries éliminatoires à ses huit dernières campagnes, en plus de participer à la finale cinq fois lors des six dernières années. La carrière de 18 ans de Padgett dans le baseball professionnel s'est amorcée en 1998, quand les Marlins de la Floride ont fait de lui leur choix de cinquième ronde à l'encan amateur. Après quelques années dans le baseball affilié avec les Cubs et les Phillies, l'athlète a débuté sa carrière dans le baseball indépendant. En huit saisons, Padgett a livré la marchandise en évoluant dans 10 formations de la Ligue Atlantic, de l'Association Américaine et de la Ligue Can-Am.

Champions d'Ottawa - Hal Lanier

Gérant de l'année dans la ligue Nationale en 1986, Hal Lanier est à sa troisième saison dans ligue Can-Am à titre de gérant des Champions d'Ottawa après avoir mené l'équipe au championnat de la ligue en 2016.

En 2010 et 2011, Lanier était à la barre des Cornbelters de Normal de la ligue Frontier. Auparavant, il a dirigé les Skyhawks de Sussex de la ligue Can-Am pendant deux saisons (2008 et 2009), mettant la main sur le championnat de la ligue en 2008. De plus, Lanier a également été à la barre des Goldeyes de Winnipeg de la ligue Northern pendant pas moins de dix saisons.

De 1986 à 1988, Lanier a occupé le poste de gérant des Astros de Houston. En 1986, Lanier a été élu gérant de l'année dans la Nationale après que la formation texane eut compilé un dossier de 96-66 en 1986, ce qui leur a valu un championnat de division et une participation aux séries de fin de saison. Avant son passage à Houston, Lanier a été instructeur au troisième but pendant cinq saisons avec les Cardinals de St-Louis.

Sur le terrain, Lanier a disputé dix saisons dans les majeurs : huit avec les Giants de San Francisco et deux avec les Yankees de New York. Lors de sa saison recrue avec les Giants en 1964, il a maintenu une moyenne de ,274 et a fait partie de l'équipe d'étoiles des recrues Topps.

Capitales de Québec - Patrick Scalabrini

Fort de quatre championnats à ses sept premières saisons à titre de gérant chez les pros, Patrick Scalabrini amorce une huitième saison à la barre des Capitales. Depuis sa nomination au poste de gérant en 2010, le Sherbrookoïse d'origine a complié un dossier de 399-273 en saison régulière, un pourcentage de ,594.

En huit saisons à titre de joueur chez les professionnels, Scalabrini a conservé une moyenne de ,293, amassant au passage 74 circuits, 397 points produits et 750 coups sûrs. Il a terminé sa carrière avec les Capitales de 2007 à 2009, disputant même les deux dernières saisons à titre de joueur-instructeur. Auparavant, il a passé une saison au sein de l'organisation des Orioles de Baltimore en 2005. À ses débuts chez les pros en 2002, Scalabrini a été élu recrue de l'année dans la division Est de la ligue Northern avec Québec, fort d'une moyenne de ,325 avec sept circuits et 45 points produits. Il a joué son baseball universitaire à l'Université d'Hawaii et à l'Université Seminole State, en Oklahoma.

Boulders de Rockland - Jamie Keefe

Trois fois gérant de l'année dans la ligue Can-Am (2011, 2014 et 2015), Jamie Keefe amorce sa cinquième saison à la tête des Boulders, qui ont connu la meilleure fiche dans la ligue en 2015.

Originaire de Rochester, dans le New Hampshire, Keefe a mené les Colonials de Pittsfield de la ligue Can-Am vers une place en série en 2011. Avant son passage à Pittsfield, Keefe a passé neuf saisons à titre de gérant au sein de trois formations de la ligue Frontier, une ligue indépendante. Au total, il compte plus de 450 victoires comme gérant dans le baseball professionnel.

Choix de troisième ronde des Pirates en 1992, Keefe a disputé neuf saisons dans les mineures auprès des clubs-école des Pirates et des Padres, atteignant le niveau « AAA » en 1997.

Miners de Sussex County - Bobby Jones

Originaire de Orange au New Jersey, l'ex-lanceur du baseball majeur, Bobby Jones, a fait ses débuts en tant que gérant avec les Miners de Sussex County en 2016.

Jones a passé les saisons de 2013 à 2015 comme entraîneur des lanceurs avec les Boulders de Rockland, participant à la conquête du championnat des siens en 2014. Il a aussi contribué à la saison régulière record des Boulders en 2015.

Le lanceur gaucher a passé six saisons dans le baseball majeur, soit avec Boston, San Diego, Colorado and les Mets de New York, grimant sur la butte à 99 reprises. En 2000, il a amorcé la partie #4 de la série de championnat de la ligue Nationale entre les Mets et les Cards de St-Louis. Jones, qui a joué pendant 15 saisons dans le baseball professionnel, a été repêché en 44e ronde par les Brewers de Milwaukee à l'encan de 1992.

Aigles de Trois-Rivières - T.J. Stanton

Après avoir pris les rênes des Aigles en juillet 2016, T.J. Stanton amorcera sa première saison complète comme gérant de la formation trifluvienne en 2017.

Auparavant, le gérant originaire de la Floride a dirigé les Grays de Garden State durant la seconde moitié de la campagne 2015. Avant d'entreprendre son rôle de gérant, Stanton était l'instructeur des lanceurs des Capitales de Québec depuis 2013. Il était releveur de fins de matchs avec les Capitales en 2011 et en 2012, cumulant 33 sauvetages en deux campagnes. Il a également passé quelque temps avec les Jackals du New Jersey et les Skyhawks de Sussex. Il est au cinquième rang de tous les temps pour les sauvetages dans la Can-Am avec 44 et au quatrième rang pour les présences en carrière avec 134.

Repêché en 2002 par les Braves d'Atlanta, Stanton a joué 11 saisons dans le baseball professionnel, passant également du temps dans l'organisation des Angels de Los Angeles.

Alumni of Can-Am League clubs Anciens de la ligue Can-Am

Umpire Will Little, 2007

Little became the first former Can-Am League umpire to reach the major leagues when he worked the Baltimore-Cleveland game at Camden Yards on June 24, 2013. After his stint in the Can-Am League, Little moved to affiliated baseball, where he quickly worked his way up the ladder through the Gulf Coast (Rookie), Appalachian (Rookie), South Atlantic (A), Carolina (A) and Southern (AA) Leagues, before reaching the Triple-A International League in 2011.

Umpire Adam Hamari, 2006

Hamari made his big-league umpiring debut just a day after fellow Can-Am League alum Will Little, manning second base at the Cubs-Brewers game at Miller Park on June 25, 2013. He had previously progressed through the minors, working in the Midwest League (A), California League (A), Florida State League (A), Southern League (AA) and Eastern League (AA). In 2011, Hamari received his first AAA assignment, as he began working in the Triple-A International League. He spent all of 2011 and 2012 as a full-time International League umpire.

Alumni of Can-Am League clubs Anciens de la ligue Can-Am

RHP/LD Tim Adleman, New Jersey 2013

Called up to the big leagues in May, Adleman had a productive debut for Cincinnati in 2016. After spending all of June and July on the disabled list, his best outing of his season may have been his first game back in August, in which he threw five shutout innings against the Dodgers to earn his second victory. Rappelé dans les majeurs en mai, Adleman a connu un début productif avec Cincinnati en 2016. Après avoir été placé sur la liste des blessés en juin et juillet, ces meilleurs moments sont survenus en août, leur de son retour au jeu. À son premier match sur la butte, il a blanchi les Dodgers pendant cinq manches pour obtenir sa deuxième victoire.

LHP Craig Breslow, New Jersey 2004

Reaching the big leagues less than one year after pitching for the Jackals in 2004, Breslow has been one of the majors' most dependable relievers over the past ten seasons, and was a key cog in Boston's championship run in 2013. After four years in Boston, Breslow signed with Miami prior to the 2016 season and split the season between the majors and Triple-A.

Breslow a été l'un des releveurs les plus constants lors de ses dix dernières saisons dans le baseball professionnel. Il a d'ailleurs été un rouage important de la victoire de la Série mondiale pour les Red Sox en 2013. Après quatre campagnes à Boston, Breslow a signé une entente avec les Marlins de Miami. Il a divisé sa saison 2016 entre les majeurs et le niveau AAA.

LHP Andrew Albers, Québec 2010

After spending the 2014 season in Korea and 2015 in the Toronto Blue Jays' organization, Albers returned to the Twins in April 2016 after spending 2011 through 2013 with the club. The Saskatchewan native spent most of the season at Triple-A, earning 10 victories on the season, but made two separate stints in the majors for Minnesota.

Après avoir passé la saison 2014 en Corée et la saison 2015 dans l'organisation des Blue Jays de Toronto, Albers effectuée a effectué un retour avec les Twins en avril 2016. Auparavant, il avait passé trois saisons avec l'équipe du Minnesota (2011-2013). L'athlète originaire de la Saskatchewan a passé la majorité de la saison au niveau AAA, obtenant 10 victoires. Il a aussi effectué deux séjours dans

1B Stephen Cardullo, Rockland 2013-15

Cardullo became the first former Rockland Boulder to reach the big leagues when he was called up to the majors on August 26. Five days later, Cardullo had a memorable birthday when he homered in the first game of a doubleheader against the Dodgers, and then swatted a grand slam in the nightcap.

Le 31 août, Cardullo a eu une journée d'anniversaire mémorable, alors qu'il a frappé son premier circuit en carrière dans le baseball professionnel lors du premier match d'un programme double contre les Dodgers. Dans le deuxième match, il a frappé un autre circuit, mais cette fois-ci, un grand chelem.

RHP Steve Delabar, Brockton 2008-09

A 2013 American League all-star, Delabar spent most of the beginning of 2016 in Triple-A, but made seven big-league appearances in May in his first season in the Cincinnati Reds organization. In June, he signed with the Japan Central League's Hiroshima Carp for the remainder of the season.

Après avoir connu du succès en 2013, Steve Delabar a passé une grande partie du début de la saison 2016 au niveau AAA. Il a toute de même effectué sept sorties en relève en mai, et ce, à sa première saison dans l'uniforme des Reds. En juin, il a signé un contrat avec les Carp d'Hiroshima dans la Japan Central League.

1B Chris Colabello, Worcester 2005-11, Nashua 2007

After a breakout season for the 2015 American League East champions in which he hit a team-high .321 to go along with 15 home runs and 54 RBI, Colabello struggled in 2016, only appearing in ten games at the big-league level.

Après une saison 2015 extraordinaire avec les champions de la division Est de l'Association américaine, les Blue Jays de Toronto où il a cumulé une moyenne au bâton de .321, 15 longues balles et 54 points produits, Colabello a connu une saison 2016 plus difficile.

RHP Luis Garcia, Newark 2012

Philadelphia's Minor League Pitcher of the Year in 2014, Garcia spent most of the 2016 season at the Triple-A level, but had four different stints in the majors. He was customarily tough against righthanded big-league hitters, limiting them to a .241 average.

Garcia a passé la majorité de son année 2016 au niveau AAA, effectuant au passage quatre apparitions dans les majeurs avec les Phillies de Philadelphie. Il était presque intraitable contre les frappeurs droitiers de puissance, les limitant à une moyenne au bâton de .241.
